

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : TU Article: At What Price Glory

Re: TU Article: At What Price Glory

Author: : greenlander

Date: : 2013/10/2 13:32:05

URL:

The rule I have always gone by is the fish shouldn't leave the water for more than 5 seconds at a time. It may sound brief, but it really isn't. If the guy with the camera is ready, 5 seconds is plenty to get a shot.