
Subject: : Fly Tying

Topic: : Salmon River , NY Flies

Re: Salmon River , NY Flies

Author: : skybay

Date: : 2013/10/4 15:22:29

URL:

Matt, it was great to see you. You are the fine salmon angler and good gallie.

I watched you how you perform and gracefully netted the big salmon in the strong current where most guys loose the landings!

I caught about 8 kings. The first one was brilliant 35 lbs king salmon hen (the picture). Some of my fights takes me a mile and last for 30min!

My last appearance on SR was 30 years ago (I do not have a written records of this ...) but this one topped the last one. What a trip.

PS: Stay tune for jack scott or black doctor SR local "patterns" trends...

I already have the reservation to Oak Orchard for the prime time kings, steelhead and brown run this year and I think I'm ready with the "right flies"

Attach file:

 King Salmon - Salmon River, NY - Sept. 30th, 2013.jpg (90.34 KB)

