

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : A great idea , wish Pennsylvania would adopt

Re: A great idea , wish Pennsylvania would adopt

Author: : CLSports

Date: : 2013/10/9 8:26:56

URL:

PENNDOT is not going to replace a culvert simply because the fish passage is not desirable. They have budget concerns and unless the culvert is seriously deteriorated and needs replacement due to unsafe roadway conditions, then it is a low priority.

I design bridges and culverts. When a culvert does need to be replaced these factors are heavily considered though. We have even designed larger culverts to allow for animal passage.