Call the PFBC NW Law Enforcement Office, that will be the quickest way to get answers (814) 337-0444

Thanks Allan. I just called. The officer that is over that area is out today, but I was able to talk to another officer. He took all the information and said he was not aware of that section being posted. He agreed that it sounds strange, but he would share the information with the other officer and that he would give me a call in a day or 2. He seemed pleased that I called him with the info so it could be checked on.

Anyway, I have to think they would know who the actual land owners are because they obviously try to negotiate easements. So, hopefully its as simple as a phone call on their part to verify this. I agree is sounds strange, but it needs to be verified if true and stopped if not true.
