I kind of did know the Crown Grant story in NY, though not in as much detail as you described.

Like I said, I never heard of any in PA.

But thanks for the info, it's something to keep an eye out for.

As for PA, crown grants aside, on all of these streams I kinda see us, the public, as holding a trump card, so to speak. That doesn't mean I think we oughta declare war and fight for every inch that is rightfully ours. Because a lot of inches aren't rightfully ours, and if we started said war, we'd lose access to those. But knowing the law does give me some comfort in that, if it came to it, we COULD fight and win quite a bit. And when the stakes are high enough, we do choose to fight an isolated battle here and there. With good results, like the LJR and Lehigh cases.
