I have all my dries in Wheatley boxes. I have about 5 of them. They are expensive as heck, but I got lucky and got 4, including a 32 compartment one (all from the 70s) in a lot of used flies for a stupid cheap price.

I like them a lot, I carry a pair tweezers in my bag, or use my hemos to get specific flies. The major draw back is they arent even close to watertight.

I only use the slotted foam boxes for nymphs and for streamers.
