looks awesome. your gonna have to hit jersey and some stripes with a fly. it gonna happen any day now.

regards to stripers yea I would love to see a slot limit put into place. I mean the majority of the fall run is made up of bass that are just at 28 or under. the down side is I think it would hurt the population of resident fish. 25 to 32 would be an a good slot. enough meat to get a meal out of the fish and they are a ton of them. and only two fish. lets be honest is a fish is 35 plus inches it not as tasty as a 28 inch fish IMO. i don't keep bass often but when i do they are just keeper size.
