Got out for a late night tossing the long rod. Started in the back with nothing to show. Some bait back there but no fish. Moved out to the surf. Threw from the surf for a little then moved to the jetties. About ten cast in hook into a solid fish. Took me into my backing. Gained half my main line onto the reel. Then the reel went. Spool popped off handed the rod to by buddy Adam and hand lined it in.

33 inches took a clouser about 3 inches long. My buddy Adam got a 20+ weakie. Fish are here just got to get down.
