Yes, the gold box came with one side magnetic and the other has a combination of clips and coils. This was the first perrine I had and still do have.

Funny story. I said that the box went for 92 dollars. When I got done posting that it sold for that price, I discovered that the highest bidder was me. Imagine my surprise. I thought I had placed a bid for 30 dollars.

Well as it turned out I had placed a comma where there should have been a decimal. So, I bid three thousand.

The seller understands as he had made the same mistake three weeks ago and is working with me.

The box with the swing leaf I believe is more rare than the gold one. I could go look at the model numbers but I'm too lazy.

Curious, Have you ever heard of a Fly-Safe fly box that was marketed by Martin in 82.
