Sorry, but there isn't *hit in this corner of the State. You would need to make a detour of an hour or so to get to anything decent. North of I-80 and East of I-79. Do you work for MW?

This post is money....

BigBronco is right. Your only shot at some fall or winter/spring trout is perhaps skipping the I76, head north and before I-80 hit Neshannock Creek.

And although Albus named a few criks that might fish after a spring stocking those criks are a waste of time and an embarrassment to the PA trout fishing experience.

If you are jonesing to dunk some feathers in late spring little Chartiers above the Guntown lake may give you a jolly but its again like sticking needles in your eyes as far as trout fishing goes.
