You are complaining in the wrong forum. The ASMFC striped bass management board is meeting on Tuesday at 8:30 AM. I have seen the letters from striper anglers that they have received and I have yet to see a single one from Pa. If you have concerns and management suggestions, they are not clear to the striper board. And that is a shame, because I think that there is a good chance for mgmt changes to be considered this time.

Good to hear, Mike.
