

Subject: : Beginner Forum

Topic: : New to Fall Flshing & Best Midge of Western PA

Re: New to Fall Flshing & Best Midge of Western PA

Author: : David

Date: : 2013/10/29 2:44:49

URL:

As you get into Dec and the colder months, stoneflies are a good choice (for those streams that have stoneflies.) Stoneflies "nymphs" remain active and thus are a food source for the trout.

As suggested, try a big stone with a midge dropper and nymph fish during the fall / winter.