

Subject: : Stream Reports

Topic: : Valley Creek, Chester Co, 10/25/13

Re: Valley Creek, Chester Co, 10/25/13

Author: : NickR

Date: : 2013/10/29 9:17:45

URL:

Find feeding or rising fish and cast. They are likely eating midges. I don't spend a lot of time with search patterns at this time of the year since it is getting colder and the fish become less active. During the warmest part of the day you can typically find risers and those are the fish that are willing to play. Like the others have said light tippet and flies are essential.