My buddy really hasn't been into it that much and we had success his 1st time. Totally get what ur saying and it makes sense. My 1st time out I didn't even fish and just watched and listened on the LL ... was a really nice cool day out and just felt great to listen to the creek and take in what theoutsider was telling duck and I. I'm figuring I'll hit the Nesh if you guys thinks WW species can still be had or just take him to the LL as I know it well enough, can go thru different ways to fish, he'll see fish and maybe he'll catch one. If he gets the hook I'm going to try to get him to join the site or at least take him to some of the newbie jams we have.

I'll take all other suggestions on any other spots u guys recommend for me to take him
