Excellent. Thanks for the information, appreciate it.

Many of the flyshops reports for the area are sounding great.

GG- I'm good. Wish I could spend time in FLA in the winter. Don't think its going to be awhile till I get back down.

Really looking forward to fishing for 4 straight days- can't remember when the last time I did that.

FYI- folks from the western part of PA should consider MI for steel and salmon. Similar drive to upstate NY without as many crowds.
