

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : Native Brookie Stream - "Upgrade" or Leave Alone?

Re: Native Brookie Stream - "Upgrade" or Leave Alone?

Author: : k-bob

Date: : 2013/11/4 12:36:35

URL:

I think the only realistic harm that removing some branches/cutting some laurel could do would involve higher summer water temps. Do you know how warm the water gets in a heat wave? If there are some beaver dams upstream it could be more of an issue. Unless this little stream goes right up to marginal temps for brookies - high 60s or above in a heat wave - I don't think removing branches will do any harm to the fish.