Another Cabelas alternative: I used to fish only Cortland lines, not anymore. Here's an inexpensive, durable quality line I've been fishing for the past six or seven years. Hook and Hackle lines are the only ones I use these days.

IMO, they are just as good as Cortland 333 -- on sale now for $25! Expect two seasons of moderate use with proper care. I've had a double taper for three, and expect another season.

I like the olive color too.... not crazy about all the neon, crime-scene tape colors offered these days.
