wow, I got to thinking about replacing the lenses on my oakleys, jeez, the lenses cost 90 bucks, but the glasses only cost me 80!!!! WTF?

guess they really don't want to sell just lenses.

I think the lens is the more expensive part of the glasses. I agree it's weird, the 90/80, but the lens + labor to fix is probably > mass production of glasses in Asia ... Just my $.02 @ NETFM ... I have read, not sure if its truth, that for Pa fishing Amber and Cooper are the most functional.
