If you're willing to take a dozen at a time, and can live with the inventory (style and size) they have on hand, Sierra Trading Post is a place that you can pick up flies for as cheap as 36.5 cents a piece ($4.38/dozen). If the flies are on sale and you have one of their 45% off codes, that's where the price lands.

Good thinkin. I haven't had time at all to tie lately. Just went on STP and got 13 dozen flies for $84. That's $0.55 per fly.

30% off with code SITEWED1113. That code ends today but Im sure another one will be right around the corner.
