My wife is more of a warm water fisher. we have a place on the Juniata River and she loves to float in her kayak and toss rubber worms or rooster tails for bass. She doesnt want to learn to fly fish even though she admitted she had fun catching bluegill on foam poppers one day. I am fine either way, if she wants to learn I'll teach her and if not i will just keep buying her rubber worms. Fishing is fishing as far as i am concerned.
