

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : Winter fishing

Re: Winter fishing

Author: : geebee

Date: : 2013/11/15 18:41:34

URL:

Pat- thanks. I have found eggs most successful in January for some reason. No idea why. I tend to fish slow deep runs 6ft plus, which may be factor.

The brighter the egg the better in my experience - they just have to be small. Brightly coloured rubber legged prince nymphs work well too.