Nice Fish streamer & fishin. Wish the site would let me upload my photographs- every time I have tried they tell me they are too large of a format?

The only one I got Saturday was on a light yellow sucker spawn size 12 as well under an indicator, and in EXTREMELY slow water I usually shy away from. didnt know if the quick drop in temp from snow earlier in the week might still have them sluggish so I decided to give one of those spots a go.
