yep, until someone pony's up more money than the gas industry, it's "screw the trout", and "hello profits".
FWIW, I feared this industry at the very first hint of what was going to happen, and people kept telling me that this industry really cares about OUR environment, about OUR state, and about OUR streams.

guess what, total F-n BS!!!!!!!

laws will continue to be changed to favor their profits, greedy f-n bastards.

edit, sorry for the thinly veiled vulgarity, but that's the kindest way I could put how I really feel.
