Hey everyone, the Orvis Store opened last Saturday. I stopped by and as expected they are heavy on the "lifestyle" clothing stuff, though they do have actual fishing gear too. I'm not sure if they actually had any dog beds. This is a corporate owned store located in a mall and is nothing like your typical fly shop. Pretty pricey but there is an online coupon valid through this Sunday Nov. 24 that is good for half off of a $50 purchase:
