I go maybe once a year anymore Ard. Just not the same, to many people and pressure. hatches have been down and fish are harder to find. I think most streams should be closed longer than they are like from dec.1st to opening day especially up here in the northern territory. to much stress on them in the winter months. state should say all streams above rt. 80 closed for winter.

by the way nails in a board would be used hear along with battery and cables..
