Hi Eunan,

I joined this board so I might have a look at some photos and hear some talk about the area where I grew up and spent many days.... well, years fishing. I also had sent an inquiry to the administrators regarding the rates for advertising sponsorship here but we don't have that sorted yet.

Do you post your flies here? I was going to put some pictures of a few Grayling and trout up but didn't have any on my desktop to upload. I take it that this site doesn't use Photo Bucket image hosting for pictures, is that correct?
