I agree with pcray. I will do whatever is necessary to catch fish, and actually enjoy all of those tactics.

I will fly fish, spin fish and truly enjoy doing of both.

But, if you like one way or tactic or fly-type only, I got no problem with that either. To each their own.

I never understood the whole fly vs. spin debate, anglers need to stick together not be torn over petty arguments. There is complete jerks on both sides of the fence. I know some. LOL
