I tried getting my wife interested in flyfishing way back when but to her it was "too much work". She's pure TX redneck. If it ain't chuckin' and winding, it ain't fishing.

A shame 'cuz she actually got OK at casting before she gave it up. She also loves the places I go to fish but fishing with baggage is a pain. Now I just tell where I'm going and when I'll be back - as in leaving Thr and be back in a week.
