I did some DIY canal fishing around Ft Lauderdale some years ago. I had some luck catching small peacock bass on Clouser Minnows. I can't remember exactly where I was.

I think most any canal down there with access for fishing would be worth a few casts as there are all sorts of exotic fish in 'em as well as largemouth bass, baby tarpon etc.

The canals run parallel to many of the roads down there - watch you don't snag a car on your backcast. 😊
