djs.....THAT is just so cool and brings back fond memories of my two young uns , daughters , sittin on my lap when they were that age, one is 27 and the other 22 now, also they both caught trout on flies they tied and i got to see that too, give you a lil sumpin to look forward to and i hope it's as great for you as it was for me. VERY , VERY NICE!!!!

Osprey,

I'm glad the post brought back good memories for you and hope you get to create more.

I'm going to put these flies into frames for the kids and will, hopefully, tie some more before I get them out on the water in warmer weather. I may have to get a Michigan license to do that, but it will be worth it.
