I'm a bit of a gear head or so I thought until Big Bass appeared on the forum. He puts me to shame but I do love to research, dabble and enjoy hunting down some deals. I did find some good deals and thought I'd compare notes with any of you that might have taken advantage of any holiday deals. (Spent all my Christmas present money for others buying gear for myself. The relative might be upset but I don't have to live with them.)

Rio Gold WF5F fly line for $35 (retail $75)

Redington Purist 9'6" 7wt for $59.95 (retail $119)

TFO Axiom 9' 6wt for $140 (retail $279)

used Redington Surge reel w/ spare spool $60 on ebay (retail $130) used Sage FLI 490 $ free $. Traded trolling motor to PhilC for rod

Not sure I really needed any of this stuff but at 50% off, I couldn't help myself. Some of this will go to the nephews and I know they'll put it to good use.

If you are looking for something on sale and can't find it..... PM me and I'll let you know if I've seen it on any of the 200 websites I've been on over the last 2 weeks. :)
