Hey Pellethead.....not everyone that sports a spinning rod is an un-ethical, hillbilly, worm dunker that throws trash everywhere. Don't get me wrong there are some real fish slobs and jerks out there. I would put you in the same class for some of the comments that you have made. I don't know why you think your so high and mighty. I hope it's not the fact that you hold a fly rod because that gives us all a bad name. With an attitude like that you'll never change anything. Try setting a good example for people to follow and don't act like such an untouchable snob. You just might be suprised what you can accomplish if you treat people like human beings.
