

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Saucon creek

Re: Saucon creek

Author: : Heritage-Angler

Date: : 2013/12/23 8:02:01

URL:

With the amount of rain we're getting, I'd suggest an olive or black woolybugger.

Fish it tight to the banks...

Under "normal" water conditions this time of year, a sz 18 pheasant tail nymph would be a good choice, as would a black zebra midge - size 20 would be great.

Good luck!