Which post was rude and disruptive? I must have missed it completely.

The "PC" filter on my phone must not be working. Just checked the map and did discover that Pennsylvania is in the US. I had the misconception that we were all free to express thoughts or opinions ..... Even if they differed from yours or someone else's.

In order to maintain "thread enjoyment" for all, I will remove myself from further discussion but I still like the idea of a bull trout that feeds on brookie fisherman. Some would see that as absurd but most would see it as humor.

Lighten up guys.
