x2. Can't say that I've ever seen a Bastian salmon fly, mixed wing or otherwise. The Blacker Book is good.

Here's a tutorial by one of the best that explains how it's done:

I think it's fair to say you're wrong here. Don doesn't tie many, if any, mixed wing salmon flies. He's predominantly a Rangeley streamer and Bergman wet guy. Though there is no doubt he's a leading authority in those categories along with Mike Martinek (for streamers)

This topic cannot come up without the mention of Pennsylvania's own Don Bastian. I think it is fair to say that he is the leading authority on the subject. All the questions that you may have can be found on his site and blog. Happy tying.
