Looks good. George Daniels has a bunch of these cdc soft hackle patterns in his book Dynamic Nymphing. I haven't tied any because I don't like buying cdc - it's so expensive! Or it feels that way anyway... Maybe I'm just cheap.

try Cul-de-Chicken works the same still mats up and you have to dry it the same. It's water proof though. sells for around $9.00 but its the whole Butt of the chicken.
