I'm ashamed to admit that I've never dropped more than $15-$18 on a pair of shades. I went to store where the lady almost hooked me on Maui Jims. I thought she told me the warranty was in excess of 3 years. I'd check on that.

I ended up going with Smith Optics polarchromic lenses (polarized transitions). Glass lens. Wore them twice and t I'm going to say they are far nicer than the $15 pairs. Definitely put together better. I'll probably get another pair shortly as back ups. I got the copper which was close to most other manufacturers amber. With Smiths, their amber is greenish and their brown is probably what most call amber.
