I thought you guys were joking about the balloons...I have never seen those before. When I used to fish for muskies with spinning and baitcasting gear and live chubs we sometimes would use large balloons.

John, check this link out. <http://www.bighorntroutshop.com/forums.php>

They have a little paragraph about them.

I have seen guides on the snbake river actually use party balloons as indicators. That's going too far! ha ha
