For me-

I am probably a few years behind all the trends so to speak.

Steelheading still kinda new and exciting for me . Been the evolution thing with me.

Learn to fly fish, catch some fish ,learn, fish for wild fish, catch some bigger fish,steelhead etc... Next maybe some saltwater!

The NY tribs seem to have many more wild fish and have more browns. Someday that would be a draw for me. Never fished there but have heard some things.

Some additional music that gets me fired up to fish!!!!
