I have polarized bi-focals that I got from america's best, about 3 years ago now. Got them there because they gave me the best price - about $170. And they've held up well. No idea what name or brand they are though. Last time I got my eyes checked - 1 year ago now - my prescription changed a bit. So I got a new pair of regular glasses that my insurance covered. But the old sunglasses still work OK for me, and I haven't replaced them
