Thanks guys! LOL Actually, the water hadn't gone that far over the rim by that point - that came later, and like an idiot I had my phone in my cargo shorts' pocket (left leg), and it got wet. Currently have in a bed of rice to see if it's recoverable. :( But that's a small price to pay for the best first true fly-fishing experience!! And my wife being there made it all the better. I think she's starting to get the bug for fly-fishing as well.
