What a memorable opening day. I'm 28 and I cannot wait to teach my kids about the great outdoors. My father taught me everything I know about the outdoors and I'm so thankful he took the time to do so. Since I don't have any kids yet I got to do the next best thing...I started fly fishing 4 years ago. My dad has always been a great fisherman. This year he decided he wanted me to teach him to fly fish. Went out this morning and gave him my rod. Showed him basic casting skills and how to set up the leader and everything like that. Had his first fish by 830 and landed a total of 4. He loved the fishing and I'm do glad I could help repay him for all the times he spent with me. What an amazing morning and one I will never forget
