Thanks for showing me a great time today, boys. It was fantastic getting out there this morning. Thanks to Englishprof for getting this set up and I really appreciate you taking/posting the pics, Foxgap! You guys could not have been more helpful to me and I can't stress that enough. It's very different working these browns compared to the ones in Utah. I've got my annual PA non-res license now, so we gotta do this again ASAP.

I also should thank Rolf for his offer to help me out on this trip. I am continually impressed by the quality of the members on this board and their willingness to reach out to other members.
