

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Small individual conservation measure

Re: Small individual conservation measure

Author: : Mike

Date: : 2014/4/17 20:21:22

URL:

I was waiting for that very accurate observation to be made. Larger stone did not work for very long in creeks because of the surface film that developed on the rocks in short order, sealing the calcium carbonate from exposure to the acidic water. Smaller stones provide more surface area too. Limestone sand is even better. JG's heart is in the right place though.