Good luck, i'm sure you'll enjoy it.

Where in Philly are you? I live right in center city, south of Washington Ave.

I dont tie many flies for fishing, mostly artsy fartsy stuff....if you need any help, let me know.

Im in far NE. as typical I95 references go somewhere between Academy rd exit and Woodhaven. I'll let you know if i need assistance. I just ordered a bunch of things to add to my stock including some size 22 and 24 hooks and materials to make trico patterns (cdc and poly wing) and some green weenie chenille. and a whip finisher. I watch alot of videos and such. I have to take a couple nights sitting with everything set up and my laptop and play around. I already tied a small fly on a #18 just by being creative, and a streamer with some white unlabeled feather in the kit and a size 10 streamer hook. the streamer looks like a noob tied it, but it was pretty cool to do.
