After searching and searching for a new rod, I think I've narrowed it down to the Winston BIII LS or the Sage One. I'm looking for a decent all around 9ft 5wt that can do light streamer duty but mostly tossing dries. My 10ft 4wt fills in my gap for nymphing. I know a few of you have the One, just looking for some insight on the BIII LS. I haven't made it to a Winston dealer yet to give one the wiggle test or cast it. I
