Bruno,

Are setting a limit on the amount of tiers? I'm in if you have room. If I counted right, I would make 11. This just what I needed to get tying again. I'll probaly tie a soft-hackled hares ear if we stick to the "Go-to" theme.

I'll also take the photos if you want...however I fear it was my poor photography for the midges that resulted in almost no one claiming their ties...so I make that offer with the disclaimer that someone else keep track of who ties what!

Your pics aren't that bad, I just havn't gotten around to Id'ing the fly's yet. Just might do that tonight after the X-mas party.
