I posted the page for the 2007 PAFF Fly Swap at the link below:

There are still a couple flies unidentified. I'll update the page at the same link when those tiers get in touch. Also, the one's missing recipes or instructions will be updated when I hear from the tiers.

In the sticky thread at the top of this forum, I included the link to the 2007 Page and updated the cross-links on the other years' pages, but I am holding off updating the Master Index Page until the 2007 Page has been completed.

Thanks to Bruno for hosting the swap and all the tiers for their great contributions.
