Still waiting on emails addresses from some of the tyers as well. So far i have the following. I have not checked the thread in a bit so there may be one or two more out there. Signups end Jan 1st. Unofficial theme is using one or more “non- traditional” tying materials in your fly. This is totally unofficial – tie up anything you see fit to share. I will be send out the rules of the swap and my mailing info by email. If you have check pm by your name I am still waiting on an email from you.
