Guys,

Why am I seeing that some of you think that fly shops are too expensive? I have said this in the past and I will say it again. It is not true!

Compare apples to apples and you will see what I mean. We have all price ranges of stuff and a price guarantee!

There is something to be said about loyalty and forming relationships with the specialty store. Form a good relationship and they will help you out and bend over backwards for you.

We have been Orvis dealers for many years. Bashing Orvis for selling dog beds is not very nice. Hey hats off to them, they know how to make money.

Orvis dealers like ourselves pick the best products they make and sell them in our stores. Orvis does have some nice products and at great prices.

Independent stores cherry pick the finest products at the best prices and do all the leg work for you. Ask questions and you will be pleasantly suprised.

It doesn't make sense to drive a long way to Cab???? to save 5 dollars on inferior brand items.

Go to your PA Fly Fishing Pro Shops!
You will have the edge!

Good Fishing!
